

Democratic Town Committee Honors Three

The Grafton Democratic Town Committee honored three local leaders at the tenth annual Froment-Moroney Memorial Breakfast Sunday, held this year at the Grafton Inn with more than 60 people in attendance.

Massachusetts Lt. Governor Timothy Murray was presented with the Froment-Moroney Leadership in Action Award. The John F. Sullivan Citizen Activist Award was awarded to Linda Casey, while Aaron Bissell received the Outstanding Young Democrat Award.

Both Casey and Bissell are Grafton residents.

The welcome and introductions were made by Chet Jakubiak, Democratic Town Committee chairman. U.S. Congressman Richard E. Neal and State Senator Michael O. Moore attended the breakfast.

Presentations were given by Moore, Rep. Jame O'Day, Cheri Rolfes, Ron Valerio and Anthony J. Vigliotti
