

Celebrating 100 episodes of Rubber Duck Theater

Grafton Community Television is celebrating another cable access milestone. GCTV producers Cindy Bissell, along with program hosts husband Richard Bissell and son Aaron Bissell have reached the 100th episode of their cable access show Rubber Duck Theater.

The show debuted on Aug. 1, 2011. The Bissells are certified access producers for Grafton Community Television. The program features recurring guest Nicholas Nicklebee, billed as a half-hour movie review show, but it includes a variety of topics including family travels and themed conventions. The Bissell family reached episode 50 in January 2014 and number 75 on Nov. 6, 2015.

The 100th episode features a one-hour special that will run on Grafton Community Television during September which airs on Charter Channel 191 and Verizon Channel 34 on the following weekly schedule: Tuesdays at 11 p.m., Friday at 10 p.m., Saturday at 10 p.m. and Sunday at 7 p.m. The program will also be available on demand at graftontv.org/current/VoD.html.

Producer Cindy Bissell during a production of an episode of Rubber Duck Theater. SUBMITTED PHOTO

Past episodes of Rubber Duck Theater are also at vimeo.com/rubberducktheater and rubberducktheater.com.